

International Partnership for Queer Youth Resilience (INQYR)

A SSHRC-funded Partnership working to:

- Address needs of sexual and gender minority youth (SGMY) and their use of information and communication technologies (ICT) in diverse global contexts
- Training next generation of scholars and practitioners working with SGMY

Objective 2: Integrate role of ICTs among existing theoretical frameworks

Objective 1: Understand how ICTs influence identity development and wellbeing for SGMY in multiple sociocultural/geographic contexts

Objective 3: Use integrated framework in online programs for SGMY resilience and wellbeing, responding to sociocultural and geographic contexts

Objective 4: Help SGMY organizations incorporate ICTs in policies/programming to promote resilience and wellbeing

Governed by a Partnership Leadership Council

International Youth Advisory Board

- 2-year commitment
- Participatory online webinars (4/year)Opportunities for
- research assistantships, symposia, and grants
- ISTN members are mentored by INQYR researchers

International Student Training Network (ISTN) Being part of the ISTN has helped me cultivate the confidence personally and professionally to take on academic challenges and foster a sense of pride in my abilities as an LGBTQ+ researcher.

-Member of ISTN Cohort 1

Students develop core competencies in 5 areas:

ICT research methodologies Mixed methods data management and analyses

Interdisciplinary research

Knowledge mobilization Research with SGMY

Initial 5 Regional Research Projects

QueerVIEW

snapshoT

Towards Free Expression of Identity and Desire

QueerVibe

The ON Study

SGMY

Photo elicitation with multiple marginalized SGMY in Ontario

Photo elicitation with trans and nonbinary youth in USA

Focus groups with SGMY in Mexico

Online educative resource for SGMY resilience & wellbeing in UK

INQYR is funded by Partnership and Connection Grants from the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC), the John R. Evans Leader Fund of the Canada Foundation for Innovation (CFI), and an International Doctoral Cluster Award (IDC) from the University of Toronto. Dr. Craig is Canada Research Chair in SGMY.

